

Baggies SAFE

'Keeping Our Family Safe'

There are lots of other organisations that can also help you, here are a few...

0121 569 3100

access_team@sandwellchildrenstrust.org childline

ONLINE, ON THE PHONE, ANYTIME

www.childline.org.uk – 0800 1111

Free and confidential counsellors via telephone, online chat and message boards offering support, for any issues big or small

The FA/NSPCC Helpline – 0808 800 5000

24 hour support, advice and guidance for people who have suffered abuse in football.

www.thinkuknow.co.uk

Can help you learn how to stay safe and protect yourself from online sexual abuse.

www.ceop.police.uk

Is a police website where you can go for advice and report online sexual abuse and online grooming.

www.youngminds.org.uk

If you are struggling with your feelings, they have lots of help and advice and practical tips on how to feel better and information on getting the support you need.

Stonewall

www.youngstonewall.org.uk

Offers support through events, social media, education programmes to young people from LGBTQ community

www.Banardos.org.uk

Offers help and support if you feel you have been abused

0121 569 2266

sandwell_enquiry@sandwell.gov.uk

ann craft trust

acting against abuse

Ann Craft Trust

Supporting adults and young people at risk or being abused 0115 951 5400 / ann-crafttrust@nottingham.ac.uk connecting sight, sound and life

National disability charity, supporting everyone to have the ability to take part in life, no matter their disability 0300 330 9256 / info@sense.org.uk

for better mental health

Mental Health Charity

To help and support everyone who faces a mental health problem 0300 1233 3393 / info@mind.org.uk

we believe, we support, we care

Supporting female survivors of domestic abuse and sexual violence in the West Midland 0121 553 0090 / info@blackcountrywomensaid.co.uk

The value of learning disability

Believing in a world where everyone with a learning disability is valued and included as active and equal citizens 0121 442 2944 / midlandsmencap.org.uk

AgeUK Sandwell

Offering support and assistance to older people in the Sandwell area 0121 437 0033 / info@ageuksandwell.org.uk

Autism West Midlands

Support autistic people across the West Midlands 0121 450 7582 / info@autismwestmidlands.org.uk

