

Player Privacy Notice

(including family members, host families, agents, representatives and emergency contacts)

last updated 12 June 2023

West Bromwich Albion Football Club Limited (the Club) respects the privacy of all players and everyone else associated with the players. We will collect and use personal data responsibly and in ways that are consistent with our obligations and your rights under the law.

This Privacy Notice explains how the Club uses and protects your personal data, as well as your rights in respect of it, how to exercise your rights and how to contact us. More information about how the Club processes personal data in general can be found in our Privacy Policy at www.wba.co.uk/privacy-policy.

Information about other people

If you provide information to us about any other people, you must give them a copy of this Privacy Notice so that they understand how their information will be used. You should only provide information about them if you are authorised to do so.

Changes to this Privacy Notice

Privacy laws and practice are constantly developing and we aim to meet high standards. Our policies and procedures are, therefore, under continual review. We may, from time to time, update our Privacy Notice. If we want to make any significant changes to the way in which we will use your personal data we will contact you and, if required, seek your consent.

About us

Unless we say otherwise, the Club is the data controller in respect of all personal data we obtain about you. This means that we are responsible for ensuring that we do so in full compliance with data protection and all other related privacy laws.

You can contact us as follows:

Address: West Bromwich Albion Football Club, The Hawthorns, West Bromwich, West Midlands B71 4LF

Phone: 0121 524 3470

Email address: dataprotection@wbafc.co.uk

If you have any questions or concerns about how we are handling your personal data you can direct them to Club's HR Department at dataprotection@wbafc.co.uk or you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (www.ico.org.uk).

Security

We take the security of personal data seriously. We use security technology, including firewalls, password protection and encryption to safeguard information and have procedures in place to ensure that our paper and computer systems and databases are protected against unauthorised disclosure, use, loss and damage. We have processes in place to deal with a data breach in the unlikely event one should occur.

We only use third party service providers where we are satisfied that they provide adequate security for your personal data.

Location of your personal data

In most cases, we normally keep your personal data within the United Kingdom or the European Economic Area. However, player details may be shared with the owners of the Club who may be in other countries. Where a player is on tour in another country, personal data about the player and any family member / host family member who will be on the tour may be provided to organisations in those other countries, such as border control agencies, host clubs, hotels, insurers and medical professionals.

We may also make relevant player information available to coaches and other tour team staff when a player is on tour outside of the United Kingdom.

Wherever we transfer your personal data outside of the United Kingdom, we will take proper care to ensure that it is protected in accordance with this Privacy Notice and applicable privacy laws.

Where we use service providers that provide their services in countries that are not deemed to have an adequate level of protection for personal data, we will normally use the United Kingdom approved 'Standard Contractual Clauses' as the legally accepted mechanism to allow the transfer and protect your data protection rights.

In the unlikely event that there is a complaint or incident which involves or affects you, we may keep your personal data for 3 years after the matter is resolved.

Your legal rights in respect of your personal data

You have a number of legal rights over your personal data which are:

Right	Explanation
access	You have the right to receive a copy of the personal data that we hold about you. We will need proof of identity and proof of authority if the request comes from someone other than you. This will ensure we only provide information to the correct person.
withdraw consent to direct marketing	You can exercise this right at any time. Just send an email to dataprotection@wbafc.co.uk and we will take care of this for you.
withdraw consent to other processing.	Where the only legal basis for our processing your personal data is that we have your consent, you can withdraw that consent at any time, and we will have to stop processing your personal data. Please note, this does not mean that processing carried out before you withdrew your consent is unlawful.
rectification	If you think any of the personal data we hold about you is inaccurate – please contact us at dataprotection@wbafc.co.uk and we will check and, if necessary, amend our records.
restriction	In limited circumstances you may be able to require us to restrict our processing of your personal data. For example, if you think what we hold is inaccurate and we disagree, we may restrict what we do with your personal data until the accuracy has been verified.
erasure	In some circumstances, for example, where we have no legal basis for keeping your personal data, you may be entitled to require us to delete it.
objection	Where our processing is based on it being in our legitimate interests, you may be entitled to object to us processing it.
portability	Where you have provided personal data to us electronically, you may be entitled to require us to provide that data to you electronically or to transmit it to someone else.
complain	If you have any concerns or complaints about how we are handling your personal data we would prefer you to get in touch with us directly so that we can try to resolve the You can also contact the Information Commissioner's Office at www.ico.org.uk .

Some of these legal rights are subject to exceptions which means that we may be entitled, or required, to refuse to comply with a request
