The team understand that organising a celebration of life, wake, farewell party or funeral reception can be very difficult time.

Take time to be with family and friends, relax and celebrate the life of your loved one.

We know that anticipating the number of guests for these occasions can be difficult, so we will always be as accommodating as possible.

Our approachable and caring team will be on hand to assist you with everything you need: so that you can allow yourselves time to reflect knowing that everything is taken care of on the day.
