Name

1. This constitution document outlines the structure and operation of West Bromwich Albion Fan Advisory Board (to be referred to as the "FAB" hereafter) a Fan Advisory Board to represent the interests of supporters of West Bromwich Albion (to be referred to as the "Club" or "WBA" hereafter)

Purpose

2. The role of the FAB is to strengthen the relationship between the Club and its supporters and ensure the Club provides a model of transparent and sustainable governance, consulting fans through the FAB and Albion assembly on strategic and operational matters.

3. The FAB should be inclusive and representative of the full demographic range of the supporter base, to whom it is accountable.

Terms of Reference

4. The FAB shall cover topics which reach across the fanbase, but also recognise that each supporter group represented may have topics they wish to discuss in detail that may not be of interest to all members.

5. The Club has a duty to communicate with groups that represent other demographics of the fanbase. As such, each founding member group believes that the Committee is just one level of supporter engagement that should exist with the club, and it is expected that the Club will continue dialogue with fan groups and with the Albion Assembly.

6. It is recognised that each fan representative plays an important role in representing certain elements of the fan base but equally should consider themselves representatives of the entire WBA fan base.

Founding members

7. Each of the below groups (para 9) will be considered as founding members but also accept the terms of representation defined.

8. A new FAB term will begin each season (commencing August) and committee members for the coming season will be determined following the below guidelines. No founding member is guaranteed a place on the FAB for perpetuity.

9. Founding members

- Proud Baggies – one seat
- All Access Albion – one seat
- A further seat reserved for a future FSA approved Independent Supporters Trust

Membership

10. Membership of the FAB board is structured with an aim of representing a broad cross section of supporters in conjunction with the Club's other channels of supporter engagement.

11. To aid constructive discussion the FAB is limited to a maximum of 9 representatives.

12. A maximum of three representatives will be reserved for Football Supporters Association (FSA) affiliated or associated groups.

13. A maximum of four representatives will be elected through an open application and selection process with application open to any WBA season ticket holder of the application season, or anyone who has bought a minimum of five home or away tickets for that same season. A minimum of two seats will be open to season ticket holders only.

14. A maximum of two representatives will be put forward by the Albion Assembly, having been democratically elected or selected by the current Assembly members.
15. To aid continuity the founding members stated above will each hold a place for a minimum of two years from the first point the FAB is established.
16. Following the initial year of operation membership will be as determined as per the recruitment and selection process outlined.

Recruitment and selection

17. The FSA can provide a scrutineer or member of the application management group to oversee the selection process.
18. The application process should be managed by the application management group which has a majority of independent representatives. This group will consist of a core group of three people. The club may have one person on the panel, the other two should be considered independent of the club, if required the FSA can provide one panel member. The Albion Assembly have an option to provide an additional two people to support the initial shortlisting process to down select from application to interview.
19. The application management group will have the power to determine the process used for recruitment, albeit expected to reflect the following. Online application, interview, and appointment.
20. The club will not have the power of appointment or veto regarding any appointment made through any means. Unless, any of the following criteria can be applied:-
- 20.1 The person is subject to a current stadium ban, or football banning order.
- 20.2 The person is subject to civil proceedings to recover money owed to the club.
- 20.3 Evidence has been presented to show the individual has made derogatory public statements regarding any of the protected characteristics, bullying etc. Such evidence will be considered by the appointment committee who will vote on their decision, the majority vote will pass.

Supporter group appointments

21. Any FSA affiliated supporter group may make an application to take up one of the group reserved spaces. Any group must have:-

- Been constituted for at least 18 months
- Have an open to all membership approach
- Have been seen to hold at least one election process for its committee
- Published at least one financial statement or set of accounts

Applications will be reviewed on an annual basis, should there be more applications than places the following appointment methodology will apply.

Creation of an independent assessment panel (supported by FSA) who will invite applications and will consider such criteria as:

- Number of members
- Years active
- Reasons given for application
- Ability to represent WBA fans
- Others as defined by the assessment panel

22. It is acknowledged that the relationship between the Club and FAB aspires to operate in line with the democratic principles and governance set out by the FSA for their affiliate, associate and individual members. This may include a democratic election process, surveying of members, and publishing documents such as minutes or summaries of their meetings.
