For example (and without limitation), the Club reserves the right to allocate the Home Match Ticket Holder an alternative seat in the Ground:

- 2.22. A Home Match Ticket Holder will not partake in ambush marketing before, during or after the Match.
- 2.23. You shall not offer or distribute (either free or for sale by any person) within the Ground any consumer article or commercial product of any nature. For the avoidance of doubt this clause shall not prevent the lawful distribution of text publications in any format which do not infringe clauses 2.21 and/or 2.22 above, where both the content and the publication are lawful in all respects and do not in the Club's reasonable opinion constitute a threat to public order.
- 2.24. Without prejudice to any other rights available to the Club, the Club reserves the right to refuse admission or eject from the Ground any person who fails to comply with the Terms & Conditions of Entry. No refunds will be issued in such circumstances.
- 2.25. Without prejudice to the warranties and representations at clause 1.2, above, and in light of Club supporters being grouped together in designated areas, any attempt to gain access to the Ground wearing or carrying apparel (including, without limitation, shirts, hats, badges and/or scarves) that demonstrate support for the Visiting Club and/or any other football club (other than the Club), may result in admission being refused or you being ejected from the Ground and in such circumstances no refund or alternative seat will be offered.

- 2.26. A Home Match Ticket Holder is not entitled to re-enter the Ground if they leave the Ground at any time on the relevant Match day, except where the Club expressly approves such re-entry.
- 2.27. Other than sealed bags from the Club shop containing Club shop purchases, you are only entitled to bring into the Ground one bag that is no larger than a sheet of A4 (21cm x 21cm x 30cm). No bag or items larger than this will be permitted into the Ground. There are no bag storage facilities at the Ground, which means that if you do not comply with this rule, you may be refused entry to the Ground. No refund will be provided in such circumstances.
- 2.28. Home Match Ticket Holders should be aware that certain seats situated in the lower stands of the Ground may be affected by adverse weather conditions.
- 2.29 The Club may, at its absolute discretion, designate specific turnstiles or entrances at the Ground as concession-only turnstiles for any Match. Access via such turnstiles shall be restricted to persons holding a valid concessionary ticket (as set out in clause 7 below and determined by the Club from time to time). Any person seeking to enter via a concession-only turnstile must, upon request, produce valid proof of eligibility acceptable to the Club. The Club reserves the right to refuse entry at any concession-only turnstile where a person is unable to provide satisfactory proof of eligibility or is otherwise not entitled to use such turnstile. In such circumstances, the Club may require the individual to (i) use an alternative turnstile, and/or (ii) upgrade their Home Match Ticket to the appropriate price category before entry is permitted. Any misuse of a concessionary ticket, including attempting to gain entry through a concession-only turnstile without entitlement, may result in refusal of entry, ejection from the Ground, and/or such further action as the Club considers appropriate in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of Entry. The location and operation of concession-only turnstiles may vary from Match to Match and are subject to change without notice.
- 2.30 Under the Unauthorised Entry to Football Matches Act 2026, it is a criminal offence to enter or attempt to enter premises for a designated football match without a valid ticket which the person is eligible to use. Any person convicted of this offence may be liable to criminal sanctions, including fines and football banning orders. This includes, without limitation, entering via an access point normally used by spectators, "tailgating" (closely following another person with a valid ticket through a point of entry), or similar means of unauthorised access.
- 2.31 The Club, its authorised personnel, and law enforcement officers reserve the right to report any suspected unauthorised entry, attempted unauthorised entry, or other suspected offence under clause 2.30 above to the police or other appropriate authorities and to assist those authorities in enforcement actions.
- 2.32 Nothing in clauses 2.30 or 2.31 above limit the Club's rights under these Terms and Conditions (including ejection from the Ground, revocation of Home Match Tickets, or denial of future ticket purchases) in respect of unauthorised entry or other misconduct.

3. Disabled Supporter(s)

- 3.1. The provisions set out in this clause 3 apply to you if you are a Home Match Ticket Holder and are registered with the Club as a Disabled Supporter.
- 3.2. Disabled Supporters are entitled to a free ticket to bring a Personal Assistant with them to the Match only if they require additional assistance to be able to attend the Match. The Disabled Supporter must register proof of their disability with the Club's Ticket Office in advance of the Match day to be able to benefit from the provisions set out in this clause 3. Proof of disability includes the following:

 - 3.2.2. receipt of the Attendance Allowance (AA);
 - 3.2.3. receipt of the Severe Disablement Allowance (SDA);

 - 3.2.5. a Certificate of Visual Impairment (CVI 2003); or
 - 3.2.6. receipt of the middle or high-rate Disability Living Allowance (DLA).

If the Disabled Supporter is not in receipt of any of the above, they can provide a letter from their GP stating that they require personal assistance in order to attend the Match and submit this to the Club for approval, which shall be provided by the Club in its sole discretion. The decision of the Club shall be final.
- 3.3. The Personal Assistant may only attend the Match in the position of carer to the Disabled Supporter, they are not deemed to be a Home Match Ticket Holder in their own right, and as such are not entitled to any other benefits to which a Home Match Ticket Holder is entitled. If the Disabled Supporter cannot attend the Match, the Personal Assistant will not be admitted into the Ground without such Disabled Supporter. If the Personal Assistant would like to attend the Match without the Disabled Supporter, they must purchase their own Home Match Ticket at full price. Notwithstanding the foregoing, by attending the Match the Personal Assistant agrees to comply with and be bound by the Terms & Conditions of Entry (and you must inform the Personal Assistant of this).
- 3.4. The Personal Assistant should sit with the Disabled Supporter and assist them with their needs throughout the course of the Match. The Club will make every effort to allocate the Personal Assistant with a seat adjacent to the Disabled Supporter, however if this is not possible, the Club will allocate the closest available seat to the Disabled Supporter. The Club requires that the Personal Assistant is fully capable of meeting the needs of the Disabled Supporter.
- 3.5. Failure to comply with the Terms & Conditions of Entry by any Disabled Supporter and/or their Personal Assistant may result in the ejection of both the Disabled Supporter and their Personal Assistant from the Ground and cancellation of the Home Match Ticket(s) without refund.

4. Use of Home Match Ticket

- 4.1. Subject to clause 4.2 below, the Home Match Ticket is issued for your sole personal use and is not transferable and you shall not resell, dispose of, assign, transfer, lend or otherwise deal with the Home Match Ticket or the benefit of it to any other person without the prior written consent of the Club. Further, you shall not use the Home Match Ticket for any commercial purpose. The reference to reselling the Home Match Ticket includes without limitation: (a) offering to sell the Home Match Ticket (including, without limitation, on any website or online auction site), (b) exposing the Home Match Ticket for sale, (c) making the Home Match Ticket available for sale by another person, (d) advertising that the Home Match Ticket is available for purchase, which for the avoidance of doubt (and by way of example only), means that the Home Match Ticket may not be offered as a gift and/or prize in any promotion or competition, (e) transferring, lending or selling any Home Match Ticket to any third party as part of a hospitality or travel package, and (f) giving (or offering to give) a Home Match Ticket to any third party who pays or agrees to pay for some other goods or services (or offers to do so), all save as expressly authorised by the Premier League/English Football League/Football Authority and/or the Club. For the avoidance of doubt, the Club does not sell any Home Match Tickets through any third party, nor does it authorise any person to do so (other than in circumstances where it has provided its prior written consent for such person to do so in accordance with this clause 4.1).

- 4.2. The Home Match Ticket Holder shall provide the Club with the name and contact details of any Guest. You may only purchase and resell or transfer a Home Match Ticket to a Guest (for that Guest's personal use only) with the express written consent of the Club given at the Club's absolute discretion, provided that such resale or transfer is in respect of the Match to which the Home Match Ticket relates and in consideration of no payment or benefit in excess of the face value of a ticket to that Match and provided further that such transfer does not take place during the course of any business or for the purpose of facilitating any third party's business. Such resale or transfer is hereby provided to be subject to the Terms & Conditions of Entry which will (save for any rights to resell and/or transfer under this clause 4.2) apply to and bind that Guest as if he/she was the original purchaser of the Home Match Ticket (and you must inform the Guest of this). In respect of a Guest, you or the relevant Guest will provide Information and the name, date of birth and address of the Guest(s) when asked to do so by any official, steward, employee or representative of the Club and/or any Police Officer/member of the emergency services and/or as part of the application to purchase the relevant Home Match Ticket (as applicable). You must not advertise or market the availability of a Home Match Ticket on a loan basis (or otherwise). Where a Home Match Ticket Holder holds a Home Match Ticket that has a concession rate applied to it, such Home Match Ticket Holder will not be entitled to transfer or resell such Home Match Ticket to a Guest unless such Guest (1) qualifies for the same concession applied to that Home Match Ticket or (2) the appropriate upgrade cost is paid to the Club prior to the relevant Match taking place (i.e. the difference between the price of a Home Match Ticket with a concession rate applied and the relevant full price Home Match Ticket). In addition to the Information, the Home Match Ticket Holder and/or the Guest shall provide the Club with the name and contact details of the Guest, an up-to-date identifiable photograph of the Guest and any other information required by the Club in respect of the Guest attending the Match. You may not purchase for or resell or transfer a Home Match Ticket to a Guest or any other person save for as permitted in these Conditions of Issue or as prescribed by the Club from time to time.
- 4.3. The unauthorised sale or disposal of a Home Match Ticket may amount to a criminal offence under section 166 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994, as amended by the Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006. The Club will inform the Police when it becomes aware that a Home Match Ticket has been sold or disposed of illegally and will press for charges to be brought against those breaking this law. If you are convicted of a ticket touting offence, or we reasonably suspect you have committed a ticketing offence, we will notify the Police and relevant Football Authorities who may in turn notify other football clubs, event holders and/or the relevant law enforcement authorities. The information that we share may include your personal data, including your name, contact details, information about the offence and about ticket purchases (including payment details). We will use this to identify and prevent ticketing offences and disorder at matches.

- 4.4. The Home Match Ticket will remain the property of the Club at all times and must be produced together with evidence of your identity if required to do so by any official, steward or employee of the Club or any Police officer. Proof of age or status may be required to validate a concession rate (if applicable) at the point of purchase, the Home Match Ticket is used or attempted to be used to attend the Match, and/or when evidence is requested in accordance with the terms of this clause 4.4. The Club reserves the right to require the immediate return of the Home Match Ticket at any time. If you fail to return the Home Match Ticket when the Club has requested you to do so, it shall be deemed a breach of the Terms & Conditions of Entry.
- 4.5. Any Home Match Ticket obtained or used in breach of the Terms & Conditions of Entry shall be automatically void and all rights conferred or evidenced by such Home Match Ticket shall be nullified. Any person seeking to use a Home Match Ticket in breach of the Terms & Conditions of Entry in order to gain entry to the Ground or remain at the Match will be considered to be a trespasser and will be refused entry to, or ejected from, the Ground in respect of a particular Match and the Home Match Ticket may be cancelled or withdrawn. In the event of any cancellation and/or withdrawal in accordance with this clause 4.5, no refund shall be payable. The Club further reserves its right to take any legal action against any person(s) as it sees fit in connection with such matters, including (but not limited to) a claim for an account of profits made from an unauthorised use of the Home Match Ticket.

5. Payment, Changes to Dates, Refunds & Exchanges

 - 5.3.3.1. Permit the Home Match Ticket Holder to attend the Match on the rearranged date (if applicable and permitted); or

- 5.3.3.2. Provide a substitute right to the Home Match Ticket Holder of equivalent or similar value in respect of the relevant Match (for example and for illustrative purposes only, providing the ability to view the Match through another method or credit to use against future Club tickets, Club merchandise and/or other services/goods offered by the Club from time to time); or
- 5.3.3.3. Provide an applicable refund in respect of the relevant Match.

Where the Club complies with the terms of this clause 5.3, and subject to these Conditions of Issue, the Club will have no further liability whatsoever in relation to the Match being postponed, rescheduled, abandoned, played behind closed doors, played at an alternative ground, played in front of a limited capacity or your Home Match Ticket is otherwise cancelled/withdrawn pursuant to this clause 5.3 and/or clause 5.4 below, including but not limited to any losses, liabilities, costs and expenses incurred by you, including any direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage, loss of enjoyment and/or travel accommodation costs. In respect of the option the Club selects in accordance with this clause 5.3 the final decision belongs to the Club.

- 5.4. If the Ground capacity is reduced for whatever reason in respect of the Match between the date of purchase of the Home Match Ticket and the date of the Match or where the Match has to be played at a ground not being the Ground that means not all Home Match Ticket Holders can attend the Match (an “Amended Capacity Match”), the Club reserves the right to allocate tickets at the Amended Capacity Match and other matches in the future as it sees appropriate without any liability to the Home Match Ticket Holder and/or any third party (this may include the Club operating a ballot to select Home Match Ticket Holders that shall be entitled to attend the Amended Capacity Match). Home Match Ticket Holders that are successful in the selected ticket allocation process will be permitted to attend the Amended Capacity Match and all Home Match Ticket Holders that are unsuccessful in such process will be notified that they are not entitled to attend the Amended Capacity Match and the Club shall select and provide one of the options detailed in clauses 5.3.3.2 and 5.3.3.3 above. Where there is more than one Amended Capacity Match and the Club decides to operate a ballot to allocate tickets, in order to provide each Home Match Ticket Holder with an equal opportunity to attend an Amended Capacity Match, ballot(s) may operate on a cycle based on the total number of Home Match Ticket Holders and the available capacity of the Ground. To facilitate this mechanism, the Club reserves the right (where the Club considers it appropriate to ensure a fair distribution between Home Match Ticket Holders) to (1) give priority/weighting in a ballot or such other method of allocation chosen by the Club from time to time to those Home Match Ticket Holders that have not been successful in previous ballot(s) operated by the Club or such other method of ticket allocation chosen by the Club from time to time and/or (2) exclude Home Match Ticket Holder(s) who have been successful in one ballot in any cycle from participating in any further ballot cycles and/or such other method of ticket allocation chosen by the Club from time to time. For the avoidance of doubt, a Home Match Ticket Holder shall be treated as having been successful in a ballot in a particular cycle where they are selected as a winner of a relevant ballot irrespective of whether or not the relevant Home Match Ticket Holder attends the relevant Amended Capacity Match. The Club is not obliged to operate a ballot. The Club reserves the right to allocate tickets at an Amended Capacity Match and/or at any match as it sees fit and the allocation method and rules that apply may vary.
- 5.5. Except as expressly stated in these Conditions of Issue, all Home Match Tickets are sold on a non-refundable basis.

- 5.6. Payment for Home Match Tickets shall be made using such payment methods accepted by the Club from time to time.

6. Lost or Stolen Home Match Tickets

- 6.1. In order to gain admission to the Ground the Home Match Ticket must be presented in its entirety at the Match.
- 6.2. The Club does not, under any circumstances, accept responsibility whatsoever for any Home Match Tickets that are lost, damaged, destroyed or stolen. Accordingly, the Club shall not be obliged to issue any replacement for a lost, stolen or destroyed Home Match Ticket.

- 7.1. To qualify for:
- 7.1.1. an Under 17 concession Home Match Ticket, the applicant must be under the relevant age on August 31st of the season for which the Home Match Ticket applies. For the avoidance of doubt, anyone who has their 17th birthday on August 31st does not qualify for the concession;
 - 7.1.2. a 17-19 concession Home Match Ticket, the applicant must be under the relevant age on August 31st of the season for which the Home Match Ticket applies. For the avoidance of doubt, anyone who has their 20th birthday on August 31st does not qualify for the concession;
 - 7.1.3. a 20-25 concession Home Match Ticket, the applicant must be under the relevant age on August 31st of the season for which the Home Match Ticket applies. For the avoidance of doubt, anyone who has their 26th birthday on August 31st does not qualify for the concession; or
 - 7.1.4. a Senior concession Home Match Ticket, the applicant must be 65 years of age or older on August 31st of the season for which the Home Match Ticket applies;
 - 7.1.5. a disabled supporters concession Home Match Ticket, the applicant must be able to demonstrate that they qualify for the concession in accordance with the Terms & Conditions of Entry and the eligibility criteria operated by the Club that is available on request at the Club's Ticket Office.
- 7.2. In addition to the Terms & Conditions of Entry, any Home Match Ticket with a concession rate applied to it will be sold subject to the specific terms set out for that category from time to time. The Club in their absolute discretion will have the right to refuse any application to purchase which does not in their opinion comply with any such conditions.
- 7.3. All concession Home Match Tickets must be used by a person of the age/concession category to which the Home Match Ticket is assigned unless the person that does not qualify for the concession upgrades the relevant Home Match Ticket for the Match in which it wants to use the Home Match Ticket and the terms of clause 4.2 above are complied with. In the event of a person not upgrading the Home Match Ticket and that person entering the Ground, or attempting to enter the Ground, with a concession Home Match Ticket for which he/she does not qualify, the Home Match Ticket will be nullified, and no refund will be given and the relevant person using the Home Match Ticket in contravention with these Conditions of Issue and the relevant Home Match Ticket Holder will not be allowed access to the Ground.

- 7.4. Purchasing a Home Match Ticket either through a Club promotion, at a concession price or at full price, using the required identification, with a view to ‘reserving’ a seat or keeping a seat unused is a breach of these Conditions of Issue. In this circumstance the Club reserves the right to cancel the Home Match Ticket, and no refund will be given.
- 7.5. Each time you apply for a Home Match Ticket that has a concession rate applied to it, you will be asked by the Club to provide evidence (to the satisfaction of the Club) to validate the requested concession rate.

8. Change of Details

If you change your personal details prior to the Match, you must notify the Club as soon as reasonably practicable by contacting the Club’s ticket office.

- 9.3. Children under 14 years of age on the date of the relevant Match are not allowed access to the Match save for where clause 2.10 is complied with. In addition, if a Home Match Ticket Holder is over 14 years of age but not over 16 years of age (“14/16 Year Old”), his/her parent(s) and/or guardian(s) are responsible for the 14/16 Year Old’s actions, conduct and compliance with the Terms & Conditions of Entry and if such 14/16 Year Old attends the Match unaccompanied their parent(s) and/or guardian(s) are deemed to have provided their permission for such unaccompanied attendance.
- 9.4. - 10.2. For the avoidance of doubt nothing in the Terms & Conditions of Entry excludes or limits the Club's liability for death or personal injury arising from its negligence, or the Club's fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or any other liability of the Club that cannot be excluded or limited under applicable law. All limits on liability within the Terms & Conditions of Entry that apply and refer to you apply equally to Guests and Personal Assistants.

- 11.5. Subject to clause 11.1 above, the Club shall have no liability whatsoever to a Home Match Ticket Holder or otherwise for any indirect or consequential losses, damages, liabilities, costs and/or expenses incurred by you and/or any other third party, including without limitation loss of business, loss of profit, loss of enjoyment, business interruption, loss of business opportunity and/or travel/accommodation costs.

12. People and Culture

- 12.1. The Club celebrates and values the diversity brought by employees, supporters and customers and believes the Club benefits from engaging with everyone from a variety of backgrounds, thus allowing it to meet the needs of a diverse population within a multi-cultural society. It is important that Home Match Ticket Holders share and are committed to these values.
- 12.2. All Home Match Ticket Holders agree to refrain from engaging in any conduct at any time either at the Ground and/or travelling to and/or from the Match and/or otherwise (including in person and on social media) which is homophobic, racist or discriminates against any individual based on their characteristics, including but not limited to their age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, sex, sexual orientation, religion or belief.
- 12.3. The Club operates a zero-tolerance approach to any type of discriminatory behaviour. As such any breach of this clause 12 will be deemed to be a material breach of the Terms & Conditions of Entry and shall incur the strongest possible sanction. The Club may also refer any individual in breach of this clause 12 to the appropriate authorities.

13. General

- 13.1. Nothing in these Conditions of Issue or by being in possession of a Home Match Ticket gives any guarantee that you will be entitled to purchase any tickets at the Ground in any season.
- 13.2. The Club reserves the right to amend, substitute and/or add to the Terms & Conditions of Entry from time to time and shall notify you of such changes if they materially affect your rights as a consumer. Such changes will be posted on the Club's website, and you agree to comply with such changes.
- 13.3. The invalidity or partial invalidity of any provision of these Conditions of Issue shall not prejudice or affect the remainder of these Conditions of Issue, which shall continue in full force and effect. If any invalid, unenforceable or illegal provision of these Conditions of Issue would be valid, enforceable and legal if some part of it were deleted, the provision shall apply with the minimum modification necessary to make it legal, valid and enforceable.
- 13.4. The Club's failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any right, power or remedy provided by the Terms & Conditions of Entry or by law shall not constitute a waiver of that right, power or remedy. Even if the Club delays in enforcing the Terms & Conditions of Entry against a Home Match Ticket Holder, the Club will be entitled to enforce it at a later stage. If the Club does not immediately insist that you cease to do or do anything you are required to do under these Terms & Conditions of Entry, or if the Club delays in taking steps against the Home Match Ticket Holder in respect of breaches of this contract, that will not mean the Home Match Ticket Holder does not have to do those things or that the Club is prevented from taking steps against the Home Match Ticket Holder at a later date.

- 13.5. The Terms & Conditions of Entry constitute the entire agreement between the Club and the Home Match Ticket Holder in relation to the purchase and use of the Home Match Ticket and neither the Club nor the Home Match Ticket Holder shall have any claim or remedy in respect of any statement, representation, warranty or undertaking made by or on behalf of any other party in relation to the Terms & Conditions of Entry which is not set therein.
- 13.6. If there is any conflict, ambiguity or inconsistency between any provision of these Conditions of Issue and any provision of the Ground Regulations, the relevant provision of these Conditions of Issue shall take precedence.
- 13.7. Notwithstanding any other provision in these Conditions of Issue and with the exception of any Football Authority, no other person other than you or the Club has any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to rely on or enforce any term of these Conditions of Issue. Nothing in the Conditions of Issue shall affect any right or remedy of a third party that exists or is available other than as a result of the aforementioned Act.
- 13.8. These Conditions of Issue and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. The parties hereby submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales in relation to any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with these Conditions of Issue (including in relation to any non-contractual disputes or claims). In addition, in respect of data protection matters within its remit the Information Commissioner's Office shall also have jurisdiction.
- 13.9. The Club shall at any time be entitled to transfer its rights and obligations under the Terms & Conditions of Entry to another organisation within its group. The Club confirms that: (i) any such transfer shall not adversely impact you and/or the continued provision of a Home Match Ticket by such group company; and (ii) it shall use reasonable endeavours to inform the Home Match Ticket Holder of any such transfer (for example, by placing a notice on the Club's website).
- 13.10. Despite our best efforts, the pricing displayed for a Home Match Ticket may be mispriced from time to time. Except in cases of obvious error, the price of the Home Match Ticket will be as detailed at the point of purchase from time to time. The Club is under no obligation to provide a Home Match Ticket to you, even if a confirmation email has been sent in respect of that Home Match Ticket, or where the Home Match Ticket is incorrectly priced and such error is obvious and could have been reasonably recognised by you as an error. If the Club has made a mistake and a Home Match Ticket's correct price is higher, we may either (i) contact you before dispatch to request whether you want to buy the Home Match Ticket at the correct price or (ii) cancel your order. If the relevant Home Match Ticket's correct price is lower than our stated price, the Club will charge the lower amount and send you the relevant Home Match Ticket. Nothing in this clause 13.10 limits the other rights available to the Club.
