Youth Engagement Coordinator

12 Month Fixed-Term Contract

Full-time 37.5 hours per week

Salary - £31,500

The Albion Foundation is the official charity partner of West Bromwich Albion Football Club. A proud Albion Family, Engaged, Inspired and Achieving its Potential. Making a measurable difference in our local community.

The Albion Foundation appreciates that its greatest asset are its staff.

The Youth Engagement Coordinator designs and delivers inclusive programmes that help young people develop confidence, resilience and essential life skills. Working closely with schools, families, community partners and stakeholders, the role increases participation, reduces barriers to opportunity and promotes positive outcomes.

The coordinator oversees programme delivery, monitors impact and supports pathways into education, training, employment, volunteering and wider community engagement, ensuring activities are accessible, engaging and responsive to young people's needs.

AS A YOUTH ENGAGEMENT COORDINATOR YOU WILL:

- Coordinate and deliver inclusive youth engagement and wellbeing programmes across schools, community venues and partner settings.
- Promote participation, healthy lifestyles, physical activity and positive wellbeing through targeted interventions and support.
- Build trusted relationships with young people, communities and partners to encourage engagement and improve outcomes.
- Manage and support staff, volunteers and students, providing guidance, supervision and quality assurance.
- Develop and maintain effective partnerships with schools, local authorities, health services and community organisations.
- Monitor programme performance, participation and impact, maintaining accurate records and contributing to reporting and evaluation.
- Manage programme resources and equipment within agreed budgets and organisational procedures.
- Support the recruitment, induction and development of staff and volunteers, fostering a positive team culture.
- Contribute to service development, innovation and continuous improvement to enhance programme quality and impact.
- Promote programmes through community outreach and engagement activities, increasing awareness, accessibility and participation.
